

Block play - a world of open ended possibilities

online training course

Date: 29th February 2024 Time: 4-5pm Venue: Online (zoom)
Target audience: EYFS and Key Stage 1 Practitioners

Brief course outline:

- Understand how blocks stimulate learning and development in all areas of curriculum.
- Discover the importance that practitioners play in developing high quality block play, encouraging and supporting both individual and groups of children, capturing their learning and extending it.
- There will be a Q&A where you will have an opportunity to ask questions and gain a deeper understanding.

Learning outcomes:

- Gain an appreciation for block play and the opportunities it offers to children's development across the curriculum.
- Understand how to embed block play into your continued provision.
- Recognise the different stages of block play.

Tickets are FREE, so book your space now!

The Froebel Partnership Events | Eventbrite

For additional information please contact us on

01483 566 589 or email PA@guildfordnsc.surrey.sch.uk

Funded by
Froebel Trust

THE
FROEBEL PARTNERSHIP