

A really lovely, quick introduction to introducing young children to cooking in an early years settings. Lots of tips for different ages and stages of development with videos of how it looks with 2-3's and 3-4's.

Really great course and well explained. Reminded me of things I can do with the children in my classroom.

Making learning fun!

Freedom with Guidance has stuck in my head!!